

Extended Response Format:

PI:

- Hook
- 2-3 Sentences of Historical Background
- Thesis Statement (Claim)

PII:

- Authors Purpose (1-2 Lines)
- Short Description/Main Idea

PIII:

- Select One Question from Handout to Explore Further

PIV:

Compare and Contrast Article to Conditions during the Industrial Era

Then and Now Many of the issues of the Industrial Revolution and Progressive Era are still relevant in the 21st century.

- Problems with the disparity of wealth? (Social Darwinism)?
- Disputes between labor and employees?
- How does the government regulate or work with businesses, Scientists, to ensure climate preservation, safe food and water consumption for its citizens?
- Does corruption continue to happen today?
- _ Discrimination against Immigrants, Minorities, Women, and other Marginalized Groups

Students look for current examples that support their responses.

PV: Conclusion

- Restate Thesis Statement
- One line on each claim
- Tie it all in

Please use the RACE acronym for each paragraph