March's Virtue-Encouragement

Moral Focus Writing-Assignment

Please complete the following on the writing paper provided. (First draft on loose leaf paper)

What is encouragement?

First Paragraph:

• Create a hook based on the virtue (NO HAVE YOU EVERS). State the meaning of gratitude and state its importance; then explain what this means to you in your words.

Body Paragraphs:

- Write about someone who is encouraging through their actions, and interactions with others. Include specific details and examples.
- Explain what you learned from the individual about being encouraging and share how you in turn have exercised the virtue. Include specific details and examples in your response.

Concluding Paragraph:

- Restate what it means to be encouraging
- Briefly retell how both you, and the individual demonstrated that virtue
- Share the benefits of being encouraging to others
- Leave the reader with a final thought on the virtue
