

Rise of Greek Civilization

* Required

Name *

Your answer

1 Greek civilization began in an area dominated by _____.

- ☐ A deserts and oases
- ☐ B mountains and lakes
- ☐ C seas and mountains
- ☐ D rivers and plains

2 Greek civilization began in a river valley.

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

3 Communities in ancient Greece were separated by _____.

- ☐ A rivers and deserts
- ☐ B deserts and mountains
- ☐ C rugged mountains and valleys
- ☐ D valleys and rivers

4 The Minoans were an island civilization and Mycenaeans a mainland civilization.

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

5 The geography of Greece did not influence the formation of independent city-states.

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

6 A group of people living in a new territory with close ties to their homeland is called a

- ☐ A polis
- ☐ B colony
- ☐ C city state
- ☐ D country

7 A gathering place or marketplace in ancient Greece.

- ☐ A polis
- ☐ B colony
- ☐ C city state
- ☐ D agora

8 Trade was important for all the groups of people who lived on or around Greece.

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

9 Trade is the system in a country that includes making, buying and selling goods.

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

10 A "Dark Age" lasted 300 years after the Dorians invaded the Greek mainland.

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

Submit

Never submit passwords through Google Forms.

This form was created inside of National Heritage Academies. Report Abuse

