

“The Baddest Dog in Harlem”

1. What do you learn about the setting in the exposition? Cite two details to support your thinking.
2. How do the initial events in the beginning of the story foreshadow the main conflict? Cite two details to support your thinking
3. What occurs during the climax or the most exciting part of the story?
4. At what point during the falling action does the tension begin to ease? Explain. Cite two details to support your answer.
5. How is the conflict resolved? Support your thinking with two details